

GeoTIFF converted data shifted in SGLI products

There are some geometric shifted data in GeoTIFF converted dataset of the SGLI product processing.

As for the issue, we are in the process of responding to the problem. Since there is noticeable deviation for this dataset on map projection and overlay with high scale/accuracy, please refrain from or pay attention for use this data until resume this issue.

We are sorry for the users who use SGLI products.

January 15, 2019
GCOM Project